

An Introduction to the Main Principles of Buddhism

by Drupon Khen Rinpoche

Tuesday 24th September 2019, 1-2pm
The Rainy Hall, New College, Mound Place

All are welcome

About the Speaker

Drupon Khen Rinpoche Karma Lhabu is a monastic teacher in the Tibetan Buddhist tradition. Normally resident at the Thrangu Sekhar Retreat Center, Nepal, where he is Retreat Master and hence in charge of the spiritual education of all those attending, Drupon Rinpoche is visiting Scotland to give teachings to the Kagyu groups in Edinburgh, Glasgow, and at the famous monastery of Samye Ling in Dumfriesshire. To learn more see www.druponrinpoche.org and to attend his teachings at Kagyu Samye Dzong Edinburgh see www.edinburgh.samye.org.

Picture credits:

Image of Shakyamuni Buddha, ink and paint on paper, from a 13th century Tibetan manuscript of the Perfection of Wisdom Sutra, released into the public domain by the Walters Art Museum. Photograph of Drupon Rinpoche from www.druponrinpoche.org

This event is hosted by the Edinburgh Buddhist Studies network

www.ed.ac.uk/buddhist-studies